The “I love to read!” Special Activities Calendar

The month of March is commonly known as, “I love to read!” month. In celebration of literacy development, we will be inviting each family to participate in an all-school literacy-promoting adventure! Please check out the information sent home with ideas your family can do together to help instill a love for reading and learning. This is by no means a requirement, but our goal is to create a rainbow chain that wraps around our entire front room! 😊

Themes

- “I love to read!”
- Author focus: Dr. Seuss
- Rhyming
- Rain forest

Notes & Reminders

* Our Donuts with Dad events will be held at 10:30am and 2:30pm on both the 22nd and 25th. Teachers will assign based on class registration (morning-only; full day; or afternoon-only). Please note: all students will have an activity to do if attendance is not possible. Grandparents are welcome in place of dad as well...

* Spring is just around the corner (we hope!), but please continue to send warm, water-proof outdoor gear (LABELED) for outside play. Full day kiddos should have multiple mittens, if possible. Thank you!!

Kid's Corner

Q: What kind of music do leprechauns love?

A: Sham-rock!
